Dear Don,
Just think we've known each other for about 20 yrs. When you stop to think about it that's a long time isn't it. We've sure had a lot of fun together. I remember in the 6th grade we were talking about boats and your mother was visiting this. We talking about the boat and you fished at the "head" was then nobody knew and you said it was the bathroom. I never laughed so hard in my whole life. It's really been fun and hope you in some of my classes next year. Have fun this summer

Dedication

We, the class of 1952, dedicate this Tahoma to Mr. Clayton Johnson.

While at Stadium, Mr. Johnson has trained and directed the orchestra, Girls' Glee Club, Concert Chorus, and Boys' Glee. Every one of us has benefited from his efforts and it is with deep sincerity that we say, "We'll miss you."

"The Firefly," was Mr. Johnson's 30th annual opera. Stadium has been indeed fortunate during these years to have had a music teacher like Mr. Johnson, who has brought us the best in musical productions.

Mr. Johnson graduated from the College of Puget Sound and was director of its music department for four years. After taking his music degree at the Chicago Musical College he returned to Tacoma and assumed the direction of our music department.

Mr. Johnson is leaving after 30 years of directing the music groups here at Stadium.

We know you will continue to give others the inspiration and pleasure that you have given us.

Fall World

"This small, but enthusiastic, staff has done an excellent job of maintaining and advancing the standards of The Stadium World," says Mrs. Cook, adviser. These students were not afraid to crusade, and in this way were able to bring school problems to the attention of the student body.

The appearance of The World was changed and given a more modern look by doing away with column rules, changing the name plate and altering some of the regular headlines.

Besides their journalistic duties, this staff found the time and imagination to present the winning skit in football night.

Reporters on the fall World staff were: Louise Balsano, Donna Bradley, Bruce Briggs, Janet McCormack, Doug Roeder, Shirley Sayre, Barbara Schaller.

Football

Finishing the season with an even won-and-lost record at 3-3 with two games tied, the Stadium football team hung up their uniforms until next fall.

Again heading the coaching staff was Mr. Levinson, who was assisted by Mr. Scott and Mr. Healy. The team's captains were Everett Gust and Bob Ehrenheim.

With the Grid-Go-Round title and a win in the King's X game to begin, the Tigers played a spectacular schedule in holding the powerful Bremerton to two touchdowns and handing a defeat to the highly rated Seattle Prep before taking their only overwhelming defeat of the year from Everett. The annual Thanksgiving Day game with Lincoln ended in a tie dividing the city title between the two.

At the end of the season the team elected Bob Lashley and Dick Nyssen as next year's captains. Fullback Everett Gust received the inspirational award.

Placed on the first string all-Cross-State team was center, Bob Ehrenheim, and Everett Gust and Dick Schlosstein were picked for the second string eleven.

Shouting orders to the staff, reminding them of the near deadline, keeping them busy every minute were the editor, Anna Mae Hoyt, and the Tahoma Adviser, Mr. Toney Shelton. They were aided by the editorial adviser, Mrs. Cook; the associate editor, Barbra Willson, and the business manager, Dick Hamby.

Writing a summary of the activities and officers of the clubs and organizations, sports, music events, typing senior write-ups and making picture layouts were only some of the numerous jobs the editorial staff accomplished during the year. Those on the staff were Louise Balsano, Marlene Budil, Barbara Hagen, Jackie Jones, Bonnie Jordahl, Mary LaRocque, Eleanor Martin, Mitzie Pinch and Sandy Shields.

Diane Dorman and Sally Nelsen, this year's art staff, designed the cover, division pages and pin sketches.

Students were allowed their preference of Claude Harta, Lutz, Penthouse, Bert Perler, Peterson, Smith and Stolz studios for their senior pictures. The staff photographer was Dave White; however, the group pictures were taken by Mr. Dave Smith.

Printing and engraving contracts were awarded to Johnson-Cox and the Tacoma Engraving Company, respectively.

An additional project which the Tahoma staff managed this year was the football programs which were published in the fall for the home games. Many long hours were spent securing enough ads from the local business firms and stores to help make this project a success. For each program, stories were written of the players and of the results of the previous games. The entire staff worked together on these publications and the additional income was a great help to the activity fund.

Opera

"The Firefly", by Rudolph Friml, was Stadium's thirtieth annual musical production presented by Mr. Johnson, director of music, and his entire aggregation. The Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs, the orchestra, the dancing chorus and the ensemble, consisting of the Stadium Concert Chorus, all took part in the presentation, March 27, 28 and 29.

The story, set in Bermuda and New York, starred Joyce Coates as Nina, an Italian street singer, and Bob Roberts as Jack Travers, her esteemed suitor. Shirley Baker played Geraldine, a wealthy socialite and fiancée of Jack. Thurston, Jack's uncle, was portrayed by Barrie Brush, who finally won the heart of Geraldine. Florence Johnson took the part of Sybil Van Dare, the girl still tied to her mother's apron strings, and Meriel Geiger played her social-minded mother who invited some guests for a Bermuda cruise. Dave Ernst as Mrs. Van Dare's confidential secretary, Jenkins, supplied much of the opera's humor. Geraldine's maid, Suzette, was portrayed by Delores Crandall. Her love interest was Pietro, Thurston's Italian valet, played by Stuart Gilbreath. Pryse Durefeldt was Herr Franz, a choir director. Mary Gibbs played Tony Colombo, New York's cleverest pick-pocket; Eddie Larson was heard as the captain of Mrs. Van Dare's cruiser, while Bim Harris was a sailor.

Mr. Evans was the dramatics director.

Supervisors who directed behind the scenes were Mary Gibbs, Bonnie Jordahl, Marion Schwartz and Gloria Stevens. Their assistants were Margery Abels, Marlene Grytness, Helen Husby, Barbara Isaacson, Jessie Padgett and Alice Vaughn.

Piano accompanists were Anita Anarde, Betty Anderson, Sharon Glasman and Marlene Prosser.

Adding greatly to the production was the dancing chorus, which presented three numbers, including a tap solo by Lynne Stewart and a ballet by Genevieve Johnston, the student dance director.

Luisenschule

The Affiliation Committee met with Mr. Daniel, adviser, for one period every day this year. The first semester's committee was composed of seven girls and the second semester's had five. Barbara Hagen was chairman both semesters.

During the first semester the committee sent scrapbooks on the Puyallup Fair and the Grid-Go-Round to Luisenschule, presented an affiliation assembly and a tea for the foreign students at Stadium, and attended the American Friends Service conference in Seattle. The seven Hi-Y's gave the school a United Nations flag during the affiliation assembly. The plan for having every club send something to Luisenschule during the year was originated by this committee. They also enjoyed Dr. Friedluse Heinrich's visit.

The second semester's affiliation committee spent time wrapping and mailing records, books and other gifts from various Stadium clubs. It was during this semester that most of the final arrangements were made for bringing Helga Rummeld-Tilk from Germany next year, and the committee had the pleasure of entertaining Barbara Clough and Mrs. Polly Victor of the American Friends. They came here to explain how Stadium could prepare for our visitor. Along with many letters to the Luisenschule Affiliation Committee, they sent Valentines and an Easter basket to them.

Miss Blaser's health classes took a very active part in affiliation by sending the makings for parties, letters and cards throughout the year. Miss Blaser also accompanied the committee to Seattle and acted as another adviser along with Mr. Daniel.

CHUCK HEALY

In the exciting weeks before graduation when our minds are so crowded with plans for that day, we will pause to remember, as we will always remember, the happy-go-lucky, always smiling Chuck, with whom we had shared so many experiences. He showed the spirit that we all have but seldom are sincere enough to show.

Chuck filled his year and a half at Stadium with activities. He played in the band and as a sideline led his own small dance band, which had been popular even during his days at Mason Junior High. Although he was active in all sports, his favorites were basketball and hockey. Chuck was forward on the sophomore basketball team and played goalie on a hockey team which he himself organized. The activities of Royal Hi-Y took much of his time and interest.

We still feel deeply the loss of our friend, as he was everyone's friend. And yet, maybe Chuck Healy is using the glow of his personality to kindle the spark of more friendships in another world. If he is, it is well, for he will be adding to their lives as he did to ours.
